DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1

Q. Which character from 'In This Moment' did you relate to the most?

2

Q. "I do not simply live here in 1861. I also live in the years 1941 and 2001" (Margaret). Which timeline did you enjoy best? Why?

3

Q. Margaret asks, "Is it possible to fall in love with three different men at the same time?". Which man did you hope Margaret would choose? Did it change throughout the story?

4

Q. Margaret knows that, above all, she wants to heal others. Discuss the differences between the timelines and Margaret's ability to fulfil this calling.

5

Q. Margaret is burdened with a deep desire to achieve something good in each timeline before she leaves it. Can you relate to her need to strive? How can we rest in Christ instead?

6

Q. "When I was younger, my gift had always made me feel like I was unique and special to God. But as I grew older, I realized that everyone had a unique and special purpose on earth." (p104). Discuss.

7

Q. In 1941, Maggie's father, Henry, says, "Suffering is not the worst thing in this world... We all suffer. Letting grief hold you back from living is the true travesty." (p117). Discuss.

8

Q. "It is not your job to fix all the pain in the world, Maggie". Margaret is a "fixer". Can you relate to her need to fix everyone and everything? What happens when Maggie can't fix things? What happens when you can't fix things?

9

Q. Historical fiction, biographies and storytelling profoundly impact the soul, often in a way that textbooks and facts cannot. Was there a moment for you in the book where history came alive? How did this change your perspective of war or challenge your attitudes towards circumstances you may be facing today?

10

Q. A powerful theme in the novel is the Sovereignty of God. How has reading this book shaped your thoughts and feelings toward God's sovereign plan for your life?
